

>From Joseph_Martin@hms.harvard.edu Thu Mar 27 21:18:48 2003
X-Sender: joseph_martin@hms.harvard.edu
X-Mailer: QUALCOMM Windows Eudora Version 5.1
Date: Thu, 27 Mar 2003 13:18:39 -0500
To: Alexei Koudinov <koudinov@inbox.ru>
From: Joseph Martin <joseph_martin@hms.harvard.edu>
Subject: Re: Potamkin Prize and the conflict of interest

Please take me off your e-mail list.

At 06:24 PM 3/27/2003 +0200, you wrote:

Dear colleagues,

This message is a correspondence item on your Alzheimer's research contribution listed at NIH PubMed and other biomedical bibliography databases.

I would like to inform you that I disclosed to neuroscience public my correspondence with Murray G. Sagsveen, General Counsel and Associate Executive Director, American Academy of Neurology, regarding the apparent conflict of interest of the AAN Potamkin Prize Chairperson:

---

Correspondence with AANs' Murray Sagsveen (Nov. 2002 - March 2003)

Alexei R. Koudinov

Available at: <<http://anzwers.org/free/neurology/reports/eletters.html#let2aan>>

---

Sincerely,

Alexei R. Koudinov, MD, PhD

<http://anzwers.org/free/neurology/>

<http://neurobiologyoflipids.org>

Competing interest statement: I do not have any competing financial interest. I aim free information dissemination and an unbiased development of Alzheimer's neuroscience. I observe the Society for Neuroscience Guidelines for Responsible Conduct Regarding Scientific Communication.